What you’ll find at the WRC:

A Cutting-Edge Resource Center

Library of books, magazines, educational videotapes, television, DVD and VHS players, health-related brochures, computer lab, wireless access, copier, microwave, refrigerator, telephone, knowledgeable staff, community resources, and networking opportunities.

A Safe Space

A safe and supportive location to meet, share experiences, find understanding, and acceptance.

The WRC is committed to combating hatred and discrimination based on sexual orientation or gender identity.

Partnerships

The WRC maintains a strong partnership with all UTEP departments as well as academic partnerships with both Women’s Studies programs at UTEP and New Mexico State University. We collaborate with community programs to provide referrals for students.

Note: The Women’s Resource Center at UTEP does not provide counseling services. The University Counseling Center is located at 104 Union West, 747-5302. Their services are confidential and free to UTEP students.

Are you interested in getting involved with the Women’s Resource Center (WRC)? We are always looking for volunteers! Fill out and return this form to the WRC (112 Union West).
